

Isaiah 11

now at the end of the hour and call this the termination of this course. Maybe we'd better not take further time for discussion right now but I'd be glad to discuss with you privately any matter, and next term I told you what course it is we will be taking, which is a different subject. I wish we had a few more hours to put on this but I've tried to give you the picture of what seems to me to be taught in these two chapters.
