

know if the three fold canon does prove if it is a human production or does it not prove it? We have the main principals of understanding of the versions and you have material to decide. This is not a controversial subject as there is a great amount of factual material and it is very useful for interpretation in the Old as well as the New. Next semester will be the study of the critical problems of the Pentetuch and utterly different from this semester.