

authority to the point that saying most things about the terrible of this man Hilary , and the church as a whole recognized Leo as a great man and Hilary as a great and good man and honored them both and in this particular controversy Hilary won out. Now it is of interest showing the papal authority was not merely as the bishops made the claims

(end of record)