

but the eastern Goths they were up in the Balkan area and a young man from the Eastern Goths was in Constantinople as a hostage and he lived in Constantinople from the time he was 10 to 18 and his name was Theodric, the gift of God, same as our modern word theodos, and Theodoric was an Ostra Goth one of these Germans educated in Constantinople as a young man and when he ~~was~~ reached the age of 18 the emperor told him he could go back to his people, and the emperor said we have treated you nicely here now you are never to lead your people in a raid against our empire, if you want to attack anything, attack the West. He said, Odacer had written the emperor and said ~~that~~ I would like you to consider me as your representative in the West, consider me as a representative in the empire in the West, well the emperor did not care much for the emperor Odacer and ~~him~~ and paid no attention to him and he said if you want to Odacer it is alright with me, so Theodorici came back to his people and they received him as their king and ~~they~~ he led the Ostra Goths and he said let us attack Italy, and they did and attack Odacer and destroyed him and he had reigned for 17 years in control of Italy but they conquered him and Theodoric and his Ostra Goths established complete control in Italy and he reigned there from 493-526, He had his reign of over 40 years in Italy and he absolute control over Italy there is a great beautiful tomb of his which is built in Vienna, the old capitol of Italy in this period, ~~which~~ which stands there till this day, and Theodorici the Ostra Goths, who was an Arian, as the Ostra Goths were said as he came in Italy and conquered and he said I intend to show rule this country that the people will say I wished Theodoric had come sooner. That was his desire to be a good ruler and he fulfilled his desire. He established law and order in Italy he carried on a good rule over the country and when the people could not agree in Italy who their bishop was he would go down and settle the matter for them and ^{decide} ~~beside~~ who should be bishop of Rome, he had no religious relations to the bishop of Rome because he was an Arian. Well now we will mention Theodorici in the next century, you see he was only in seven years in this century, and then next century that some things happened and his relation to the the bishop of Rome we want to look
