

not come until 400 years or more until after the death of Christ and Gregory did not come until 150 years after Leo and that it is hard to believe that the Roman church would have anything left to its power in the World today if it were not for these two great men who are deservedly called the great, who among the 80 or so bishops who reigned in Rome during these 600 years. There are a small number of the many bishops but they are, each of them is one of the great figures of the day, Now this man Gregory the first who reigned from 590-604 is very properly called the Great, he was a man of great ability and (end of record)