

our missionaries there going to put the responsibility on them right in the Board and the stand that the Ind. Board has taken and with its realization of its obligation to God in this day of apostasy, could we say that we would work even in cooperation with the CC of Kenya, much less to say we would work under its jurisdiction. Well, of course not, so we replied that we could not work under the direction of the CC of Kenya and that application for property, though it had the approval of the two lower bodies it was turned down when it finally came to the third body which had to give its approval, the native land trust board and they withheld the approval, turned down the request for that land and then not following the exact sequence but recently they turned down the application of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Armes for entry permits to Kenya. That is the situation that we have to face and that has lead 14 1/3 (end of record)
