

, the bishop of Rome, but he issued an imperial order that Celstius and Pleagius were to be banished from Rome. He was, of course in northern Italy and that this teaching was not to be permitted in the Roman empire because it was unChristian and wrong teaching and when the imperial decision reached Rome, , the pope, succeeded in making up his mind about the matter and now he issued a ~~st~~ statement in which he declared that Pleagius and Celestius were teaching heresy and that it was wrong and unchristian and that their teaching should not be tolerated in and so now the bishop of Rome condemns the teachings of Pleagius,
(end of record)