We wondered whether we had done right as to go quite so far because they might say well, this means that every mission and that means a whole great mess of business which we have to undertake where as heretofore we could tend to one central office and say, ~~here~~ ^{this} is a good mission and shall we admit it. But you know that got across to the British government and we praise God for it and then also in these things have, God has given us a victory there, whatever may be the present situation, but on our way to Bankak, we stopped in and saw this famous deputy foreign minister who is Dr. friend, he said the same thing, he said, he wasn't very open minded at first on this matter, it was purely a business arrangement he said it didn't make any difference whether you agreed theologically or not, if you work through the NCC or not. No, he said, some won't have anything to do with others and then we said to him the same thing that we said to the British office, we said, actually there is as great difference between modernism and fundamentalism as there was between R.C. and true protestants. ^{They} ~~We~~ had already set up agencies for the R.C., that is how it hit him rather hard and he thought for a minute then he said form your own conouciland when you get it formed we will recognize that as a clearing house for such missions and churches to work through. Well, India Bible Christian Council has been formed, and I have a letter from Mr. who is the president of it now, but I think God has given us the formation of the IBCC because something that will raise a testimony in India where it has been desperately needed these years, a testimony of true faith and that is another victory. One other thing I want to say ~~because~~ before we give these ~~xxx~~ missionaries a little bit of a chance, they must think I am pretty bad, and so do I, but just this, there are twenty five missions now that have joined the ICC as
