I just finished dictating letters before I came to this class they will each elect a representative, active representatives that were chosen at Geneva as a missions commission and we hope to employ a full time missions secretary and to do actively work all around the world. And that hasn't definitely specifically but here are miss Dorothy Roberts and Jack Armes centered because his application has been refused, but ten minutes after 11, Dr. MacRae? Maybe Miss Roberts will have something to say on the standpoint of the field? I told her she could have ten minutes but she can't because we haven't got ten minutes. I thought that Ladies were the only ones that were long winded(Miss Roberts speaking now), but will I see what I can do, ~~there~~ are lots of things on my mind. Before we went out to Kenya ~~there~~ we knew that it was going to be difficult to get in, we couldn't get our entry permit and it was longer than usual in trying to find out why. had already been in Kenya under another missions and she had a friend out there that she thought might be able to help here and she wrote to that friend and asked her if she could find out why they weren't giving us our entry permits. This friend wrote back after a bit of investigation and she said that the Christian Council out there in Kenya was objecting very strongly to the government that they shouldn't allow us to get in. We didn't know what was the matter with us, but apparently the Independent Board's reputation had reached there before we had. However, in a wonderful way the Lord opened the door and soon through a contact of a man who was influential through the government who at that time was in London, we were able to get our permits in to get into Kenya for which we praise the Lord. When we got there, shortly after we arrived, we had a letter from the AIM asking if we would meet with them and we would consider how we could work out a . We did that a little later on and at that time, I remember Mr. Campbell asking the man, if they were connected with the Christian Council
