the proof text habit to ome extent, s̸p̸e̸a̸k̸/n̸g̸ picking a word without reagard to the situation and to the content. You think of the situation I can not see how haybody can think Christ ᵋitting there at the able and that was his body in front of him. If I were to illustrate to you , say Mr. Swayne tripped me up as I want out of the door and I would fall and say we were sitting at the tagle together and he ask me how it happened and I would say look here and I would take a piece of paper and a piece of bread and I would say this is Mr. Swayne and then I take another piece of beead and say tis is me. Now you see I was moving forward this way and he stepped up and I moved the pieces of bread and I say this is Mr. ᵋayne and this is me, you would not acutually think I meat that was me, or that was actually was Mr. Swayne you wuld think I was illustrating somet ing. I w̸o̸u̸l̸d̸ was using pieces of bread to illustrate and so when Christ actually sat there and h̸e̸ said these things to the disciples.
