there is a group of ... called the Endo Eupropean languases, and this includes most of the languages of Europe and x also some of the languages ... and most of the languages of America, and this group of languages which is called the Endo-Eusoropean languages have many points of similarity. And then there xxx is another group of languages called the Semitic languages which include five main languages, which have a close relationship, much closer than many of our Endo-European langua ges, but about ...., but this group of Semitic languages is usually thought of as a group by themselves ... and yet there are certain similarities. And some scholars have tried to show certain similarities that they think show a... but it isn't for us i-the- in the ministry to decide .... yet there are far more similarizties, and a great many of the other languages . Now, today is a tremendously helpful what parts of speech ..., so there shouldn't be any question, but in English ....now, in Hebrew, that - the first thingsx is to know what the parts of speech are, and in a way that is more important than .. upon recognizing at a glance, and I would recommend that to advance your understanding of -- and without taking time to --simply taking your English Bible and going through at he parts of speech just to see where it is , and that is somethinkg ...

A 2

Now, I have already mentioned that - the two common ...and those in English and ...are all of our .that is concerned by our ...In English and Greek , but the and Hebrew is as x much ...in English a great many of our , but then we have the noun , and the noun , and then in Heb. and in quite an extent in all...the k verxb xx is an action xxx word. When I wo- was a student at ca- college , now, this idea of being --something which in Hebrew is-a- was originally a nominative ,

- C-