

they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel." I believe that it is the minister's duty to lead the people to realize their responsibility in this regard. Perhaps he can do it best after he's well established there so that it is not related to him but is related to the general situation. We had a student once a good many years ago who came to me and he said to me, "I'm two months behind in my board bill. I'm going to have to quit eating in the dining club because I can't pay it." I said, "We require our students <sup>who live</sup> in the dorms here to eating the dining room." ~~XXXX~~ "Well", he said, "I just can't afford it." "Well", I said, "You'll have to do it. It's our rule." "Well" he said, "I'm going to get out and I'm going to get a little bowl of soup every noon

They were paying him $3.00 a week - he was holding meetings up there Sunday mornings, Sunday nights, and during the week-it cost practically the $3.00 to pay his bus fare there and back. They'd had a student before from the seminary and this fellow refused ever and ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~ that's what they paid him and they couldn't afford to pay him any more - couldn't do it. "Well", I said, "You'll have to give up the church then. You've got to pay your board bill. It isn't fair to make the others pay for what you eat. You've got to bring it up-to-date and you'll have to drop out of the church. You can't keep it up if you can't pay your board bill." "Well," he said, "they can't do it." "Well", ~~XXXX~~ I said, "It's too bad but <sup>that's all we can</sup> ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~ do." You know I got a 'phone call. I got a 'phone call Sunday afternoon. A woman said, "Oh, Doctor MacRae, can't you let so-and-so continue to preach for us? He tells us he can't preach for us anymore. You said he has to quit. Oh, we love his preaching so much. We want to keep having him. We feel so bad about it. This man who was here before we gave him $3.00." The man before had ironed three full days a week - ironing the other fellows shirts

(5.5) and he wouldn't take another cent from them but that $3.00 a week and they thought that was all - of course $3.00 then was what $1.00 is now. But they
