that the paper would correct this statement. The King James Bible is not the Pible of the TRigits English-speaking world, he said over a third of the people in Wilmington, here, for instance, are Roman Catholics, and he said, our Bibles are the Douay version, not the King James. And the paper apologized for its misstatement. And the Douay version might be the Bible of the third of the people, but the question would be whether any of them ever read it.

Among the rank and file of Roman Catholics, the knowledge of these matters is very very slight. They are very ill-informed in general. In this country, and if you go to any other country, ther their information is one-fifth of what it is in this country. They know practically nothing. All they know is that the pope is the authority, whatever he t says is infallible, and the priest passes on to you what he said....(end of record)

Record 118

x the x x x the x x x the x x the x x the x x x x the x x x x the x x x th

....and himself were in the hospital together and they used to have long discussions, and he was a highly educated man, with a fine scientific attitude toward matters, and he said in there their many discussions of religion, they always fell back on that "but the church says and the church knows". And he was ready to accept it and that was the last word. And they did not seem interested in going into whether the church was right or not. Well now, in my opinion, the best service you can do to a Roman Catholic is to get him to reading the Douay Version or the(1) one of the Roman Catholic versions, because the truth of saluation is clearly taught in their Bibles, even though not as clear as in the better places. It nevertheless is Not only that, but their erroneous doctrines are not contained there. clear. unless they are put into footnotes, because they are not in the Bible. They Apocrypha. are t not in the Ethie. Sometimes you can infer some of it, from an occasional statement in the Apocrypha, but they are not in the Apocrypha.

Now that is x only half x of the answer to Mr. Auffarth's question. He said the x that they are not interested in Greek and Hebrew and x triticism. Well, the rank and file are not interested in the Bible, they are not encouraged to be

113