

Page

- 49 You can interp. either OT or NT in a pre-mil view
Pre-mil is best view of Isa. 11
- 50 Pre- post - and a-mil
- 51.1 Mic. 4:4 not repeated in Isa. 2
- 10 Mic. 4:5 a puzzle
- 18 NT quotation of OT
- 28 The whole passage vital, not just a word or two that's quoted.
- 52 Arguments for verbal inspiration built on words
- 52.12 "I am the God of Abraham" - "am" in italics in NT; no pres. tense in Heb
- 23 "Seed" not "seeds" -- sing., or collective plural
- 53.10 Isa. 2, Mic. 4 - not peace of heart, but freedom from external danger
- 17 Phrase "in the last days"
- 54.1 Use of concordance
- Use of Englishman's Heb. Concord.
- 22 Need to examine both (1) context and(2) etymology of words
- 55 Dan. 2:28 How much is included in the term "in the latter days"?
- Everything subsequent to Neb?
Just the end of the vision which he saw?
- 56.6 Passage doesn't prove which
- 10 Hos. 3:5
- 18 Ezek. 38:16
- 24 Dan. 10:14
- 57.5 Jer. 49:39
- 8 Jer. 48:47
- 12 Deut. 31:29 means "after my death"
- 27 Means "afterward" rather than at the end of the age
- 58 "in the last days", "in the latter days" not a technical phrase
- 1) On grounds of reasonable interpretation
- 2) In the fulfillment it was "after a time" rather than in the end of age.
- 59.3 Deut. 4:30 after a time rather than a specific time
- 19 Num. 24:14 refers to coming of David & his conquest of Edom
- 60.4 Gen. 49:1 after a time, that which is after rather than that which is at
- 19 the end
- 61 Events of "latter days" fulfilled before end of present age
- .19 Definitely means something in the future