

Page

- 127b This emphasis not in Isa. 1
 Illustration of seminary student who gave away $ bills to show salvation was free. Conviction of sin necessary first.
- 127b.26 Discussion of true meaning of Isa. 1:18: Let's look at this things sensibly. Do you think you can pull the wool over God's eyes by saying you haven't any sin when actually you have covered them?
128. Importance of tone of voice
 128.13 If 1:18 is a question, it fits with the context in which a demand is made for sincerity and for not pretending reality by empty ceremonies.
- 129.20 1:16 Quit this business of being hypocrites
 1:19 The whole emphasis is on sincerity and insincerity
- 130.1 Do precise words used successively always mean the same thing?
- 130.14 1 Kings 22 - illustration. Tone of voice reveals meaning of words.
 131
- 133.1 Need the atonement of ch. 40-56 in between 1:17, and 18 in order to make vs. 18 possible
 People believe anything if said strongly enough and often enough.
 133.28 Commentators copy one another.
- 134.12 People will copy uncritically if they have a good name in back of it.
 20 True things usually are not complicated. Can be expressed in clear simple language.
 24 1:10-20 are an attack upon ceremonial religion without the heart behind it
 McIntire - "The sin of going to church" sermon
- 135.10 Sin of unfaithfulness among God's people - 1:21
 Sin of apostasy
 28 Going to Harvard
- 136.3 Founded to train men to teach the Word
 Silver become dross; wine mixed with water
 10 1:24 parallel with vs 7.8 Unconditional prediction
 1;19,20 conditional prediction
- 137.1 1:26 restoration of judges and identification
- 138.8 2:13
 16 2:16 Tarshish. Ships of Tarshish -- term came to be used of any great ship