

Page

- 138.24 Anything that is great and strong and seems to be attractive if it is contrary to God's will is going to be brought into judgment.
- 139.1 2:18 idolatry abolished
2:19 holes in the rocks.
- 142.1 2:23 man's inability to find safety or satisfaction in himself
- 14 3:1-8 prediction of general confusion previous to the exile when the better part of the people had been taken away into exile.
condition ---- punishment ---- condition (3:6-9)
- 142:23 3:10-11 General statement of truth rather than a prediction
- 143:3 3:12 the condition continued(not a prediction)
rule by a polygamist family
weak control. rule in irresponsible hands
.27 Illustration. England after death of Henry VIII
- 144 3:12a chaotic conditions
3:12a Weak, capricious rule
12b Strong, evil rule
- 145.2 3:16 worldliness of women (contra. vs. 12, govt. by women)
effect of depopulation of land upon the women
God's punishment upon them for putting other things before Him
- 145:18 4:2-6 conclusion of rebuke to women
- 145.28 Future depicted in ch. 4 is earlier than the fut/ pictured in ch. 2
- 147.1 No reason for ch. division beginning with ch. 57
- 148.4 63:1-6 prediction of the future
remainder of the chapter entirely different in nature.
Important division at 63:6
56:8 - 63:6 section 2 Discussion bearing on these divisions
63:7 to end section 3
- 149.22 63:1-6 // 59:16-18
Discussion re assignment
150. Review of ch. 2,3,4
ch. 5 largely rebuke