

ISAIAH B. 185-338

- de 283 63:7-12 Approach of Fr. Delitzsch regarding this prayer.
Further discussion
- 284 63:10
64:6-7 Tremendous confession of sin
64:8 we are the clay, and thou our potter
No real representation of repentance and desire of God's cleansing
Because we're God's people He has to give us these things
- ce 284/9
re 284a 63:19 God shouldn't do good things for other people
65:5 God rebukes spiritual pride cf. 63:19
Answer: rebuke; assurance of blessing
- de 285 63:7,19 Change from "I" to "We"
285/8 63:10
- 286/4 64:9 somewhat confusing
- re 287/3 Attitude of, do it for our sake rather than for your sake.
287/7 Selfish prayer. We're your people, rather than for your glory.
Babylonians are not your people
- re 288 65:1-2 God turns to gentiles
Use made of this passage by Paul in Romans 10:20
God predicted in advance the unbelief of Israel
- 289 65:1 Belongs in the discussion of the subject, You (God) should not bless those people (the Gentiles). You're my people but you're not following me as you should, so I'm going to turn for a time to a nation that is not called by my name. Paul's interp. fits ours
- re 289/8 RSV on Ise. 65:1 and Rom. 10:21,22
re 290 RSV makes a contradiction between NT and OT at this point
Paul made to err
- re 291 Was Paul wrong?
Niphal said by some to be like Greek Middle. Rarely, if ever.
- re 292/1-6 Discussion continued
re 292/7 NEB safer than RSV (footnote-wise)
Berkeley version
- re 293 AAM's experience with the Berkeley version editors.
Unsatisfactory character of its not telling who translated what.
- 294/1-6 65:1-2
294/7-10 65:3-4 Those described in vs. 3-4 are different from those in vs. 5 ???
- re 295 What God thinks of spiritual pride
re 295/5 65:6 Declaration of punishment - involves turning to Gentiles(7-10)
65:18 Promise of blessing
- re 296 65:14-15 Name Israel little used today (???)
Your name for a curse. Punishment upon hypocrisy
Turning to Gentiles
- re 297/4 63:7 Note things prayed for and basis of prayer
re 297/9 63:15 They ask God to do something.
