ti.		- 29 -
398/1-3	54:7	For a small moment have I forsaken thee
397/4-1 0		Reiteration of certain aspects of chs. 53:, 54:.
398	54:1	O Sing, O barren, thou that didst not bear/// Israel® The Servant of the Lord?
399/1-8 399/9-10	54:2	Extention and enlargement of of the place a cobbler works, and a man, a modern polyglot
400	54:2	Application of the vs. to history; William Carey
401/1-5	54:	Its interrelation with surrounding chapters chs.53,55
401 /66 -6-10	II ·	" " " " "" ", ch.40
402	54: q	The Babylonian exile, but more important than that, The final deliverance from through the work of h= the Servant of the Lord.
403		Ch. 40 - the introduction to the emotions involved in deliverance from Babylon, but beyond that, devertience from sin the coming of the Svt of the Lord.
* ;		chs 42, 48, 49 and 53: The greatness of the Lord and His gentleness.
404		Ch. 40 is the start of the whole thing; recapituation of it, it is the new start
405		Where is the embryo of the Church? at Pentecost or before?
406		Dispensations in the Scriptures
407		t-e- The activity of the Holy Spirit; David's Prayer;