back _____ You can't help _____ one now, maybe Israel/^{comes}under some of these condemnations, at least part of it. What is the answer? This ~~is~~ raising the question, getting the thought in mind, and that's one of the biggest things to do would be to get them/^{to}realize the question to understand the need, and before you do, you give the answer, the people just don't get anything out of it.

You have to get them to emotionally aroused to feel the need before they could be bothered by these questions. _____ I have ~~known~~ gone up to a boy on the street, and say, "Would like a dollar?" "Yes, I like a dollar." "Here is, take it." He can't believe you _____ in a penny for ? a dollar. But he had heard of this before, he takes the dollar. And you say now, "Is the dollar yours?" Have you got it?" "Yes." If you say, "Would you like to be saved?" "Yes, take this, it's yours." ^{someone} That is, now, a wonderful illustration to show how/easy it is to be saved when a person has deep conviction of sin and cannot believe it possible/^{that}without some strenuous effort on his part he could possibly ~~xxx~~ be saved. ~~just~~

But just throw it out to somebody that has no concept of need of salvation or of the reality of sin. It's meaningless, it makes it look as if sin doesn't matter. It doesn't matter what we do, just take it and _____ God's gift.

Well, it's just a gift that he is going to take us to heaven ~~xxx~~gift, ~~that~~gift ^{that} give us ^{ance} It's the gift/he is going to/deliver/~~us~~ from sin, and he is going to show us how we can be victorious over sin through the power he is going to give us. You have to know the question before the answer means it. So, this answer is a marvellous one, once you realize the question. Until you realize the question, ^{so} it's just hard and _____ And/here we are building up to get the question understood intellectually and emotionally to the point where the people realize that oh how marvellously God is going to deliver them from exile. But we are worthy of it, we don't deserve it, even now, we have sin in our hearts, what can we do about this sin. We've got to/^{get to}the point where we realize this is even more important question than the exile, and he has been little tactically leading up to trying to develop that realization. And it is wonderful
