RAISE up the preserved/of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel, He is separated from Israel, and yet he is Israel, and so ~~the~~ thing is now brought out quite sharply by this point that he is either a very small group or one individual. Certainly it suggests one individual. But it is brought out here for the first time that he has a work to do for Israel, and a great work to do for Israel, and yet this does not take away, doesn't change, his purposes, his original purpose which was to be a light to the Gentiles, It's still there, and it is the tremendous great purpose for which Israel came into existence in the world. Israel is God's servant to do this. Now, we want to do this, and we also have to work for Israel. Yes, Mr. Abbott... and in Verse 6, the servant is still speaking, and now saith the Lord that formed me from the womb to be His servant. To me is the one who is informed from the womb to be the servant of the Lord, but to me who is speaking ~~is~~ is now quoting what the Lord has said to him. He does in verse three(?)
