

by Isaiah, and then you can believe that it was written by second Isaiah, by an unknown man about 100 years, but I think the difference in understanding is that only about 5 %, I think whether this was written, as I believe it was by Isaiah, or it was written by an unknown man ^{later} 150 years/that the teaching of it relates to the same thing than you come to the same conclusion. So It's not particularly important for this particular course. I believe the New Testament refers to the whole book of Isaiah and therefore that we have evidences that it was all by Isaiah, and I don't think there is anything that proves the contrary. But it's ~~contrary~~, the vital thing is what it teaches. Yes, Dr. Eppard. I believe that it is very difficult. I believe that ~~contrary~~, we believe that God knows the ends from the beginning and God has ordained all things in accordance with His own wise purposes. But we also believe that our freedom of choice is a very real thing, and we are judged according to what we do, and that we ~~like~~ believe that ^{aspects} there are two ~~aspects~~ which we can't fit together, we don't understand just how they fit, but we just believe that ~~there are~~ both ~~aspects~~ are true.

~~there is~~ ^{his} When/Mohammedans/drive a car rapidly/ around the _____ because if the Lord has predestined to die now, he will die now, and there is nothing he can do about it. That is not arguing at all. We believe we are responsible for what we do, and that we have to figure/the second cause/and/our attitudes _____

< Well, ~~we~~ we didn't get so much by way of covering, but we ~~we~~ have dealt/ with a very important matter which are touched upon it. We didn't get much ground as I like as last time, but we have dealt with some very important things in the last part of the hour, of great importance, but not so much importance in relation to Isaiah, and so we must move on rapidly now//and make up for it, having got a little bit behind. The uh,, I feel that we should finish chapter 53 by the end of next week, rather I hate to do it, but I think it is necessary because after all we've/got this week/ and next week, and the next week/the test and then we have two meetings after vacation. So, that, that doesn't leave us much time, and so that we have to get over through chapter 56, and then I like to

The middle of 56
