

No. 12, Cont'd

He is going to go forward in order to accomplish the work as the Lord has called him to do.

No. 13

And so we have, we have now the ^{ce} famous assurance/again that he is going to accomplish the work. That is the big assurance of the chapter 42. In chapter 49, there seems to be a little problem. He has difficulty, there ~~is~~ ^{are} strugglings in _____

In chapter 42 you never get any problem/ But now we have again ^{the} assurance that He is going to get the work done. So here we have here his accomplishment, his exaltation, He is successful. He will be successful. He will deal wisely. He will be exalted, and extolled and very high. Three different phrases for being praised _____ (14.200) If it's stressed in verse thirteen, exaltation of the servant. What a tremendous stress in this verse here. It's just here stressed ~~four times~~ repeatedly. Four times he is going to be successful, he is going to be exalted, praised very high, Surely you cannot have more assurance that the work of the servant of the Lord is going to be done. And yet you have a very strong contrasts in verse 14, ~~and~~ ^{As} many ~~are~~ ^{were} astonished at thee. Now this word, astonished ~~is~~ is unfortunate when you look at ~~it~~ ~~the word~~ astounded, you will immediately think that we have left out sh. You may think this ought ~~to~~ to be astonished. But it isn't that at all. Astounded is an old English word which in no way astonished, it is astounded. It is astounded. It is not a sudden surprise, not at all, but a terrible, a terrible shock, you might say. It is to be disgusted, overwhelmed with. It is a bad reaction which one gets /when ~~you~~ one is astounded. Not simply _____ (13.05) The emphasis is not simply on surprise, but on the terrible nature of that which one sees, which he confronts. He is absolutely astounded so terribly, as many were astounded at thee; ^{and his form} his visage was so marred more than any man, ~~and~~ more than the sons of man. So shall he sprinkle many nations;... the RSV, if I ~~can~~ recall
