

and the time when these great blessings come. And then he speaks of the time when there may be difficulty, there may be problems, but when there will be a real consciousness of the presence of God