

Heb. Exegesis E1

they will ... and so they will know that there has been a prophet in their midst. This word Al) _____ here is a very generally used in a negative request. ~~same~~. ~~This AL~~ When we use AL, it is usually a command, you <sup>go and</sup> do this, don't you do this. That is not AL, but that is LO. The ten commandments are LO. You shall not. And LO is also in the narratives... but AL is a negative request. You are advised not to... So, this is ~~no~~ do not. Do not yarei. Now, ~~two~~ the two that words/are easily confused are RAA AND YAREI. Some forms, you cannot tell them apart. This/ one, thought, is ~~xxx~~ very clear. YAREI. You know what there are YAREI means. Hendiadys is a case where/two words which together form ~~a~~ one concept, which could be put together ... either one of them, in this case you have ~~two~~ two figures of speech/ ~~The two together~~ giving one figurative idea. It is difficulty... either one of them alone gives ... don't fear the ... don't fear the ... It does not... I think the hendiadys... one of the ... gives the idea. So, I would take it as a figure of speech put together. We are not here when bridles and thorns are here. (Q) ... One time, when I was ~~at the~~ on Grand Kenyon, I went there with the superintendent of the Grand Kenyon Park for a day for a trip down to ~~the~~ a certain trail, and I took some stuffs and hid them there, and then the next day when I came down... with the rest of them... and ~~double~~ then I went on from there. Down there I thought that I had seen some thing that I ~~never~~ had never seen before. In the Kenyon I saw ... And at the end of the tail... (625)
