

fixed, it is definite. What are definite. ~~And~~ In Old English ... now, this means...now these are the...does this mean the ...that David did. Or does it mean the benevolences that were done ~~to~~ to David. Or does it mean the benevolences that belong to David. It ~~can~~ can be a ...genitive, it can be a ~~sub~~ subjective genitive, it can be an objective genitive, it can be a possessive genitive. That can make quite a ~~differe~~ difference. ..I will give you all the...that I gave David. That is an objective ~~genitiv~~ genitive, a ..the benevolences of David, just as David was kind to many people, so I was kind to you. That ...it is definitely not a ~~sub~~ subjective ~~genitiv~~ genitive. Objective genitive, I question that. I ~~q~~ ...is an example of how I am going to treat you. ...Now, that statement is true, God shows wonderful goodness to David, and ~~he~~ He shall show similar goodness to ...but I think there is much more than that. It seems to me that the possessive...it is the benevolences that God is bringing through David. the benevolences that belong to ~~David~~ David. . through David's son we are to be saved, through the descendants of David who will provide us salvation, who will be our leaders...and reign on the throne of David through him. They are differences which ...that was ~~f~~ given to David --I think all of that was brought out when you get to the ~~g~~ next verse. I would say definitely that ...Jesus Christ...he is the one that made the sea, these are the mercies of David which are promised to David and given...so then, the participle is continuous action. It does not tell...~~there~~ there are many instances. The having been assured mercies of David, the Niphal participle often has .. that is, it is often used for something which must be done in the future. Something for which there is a ~~compuls~~ compulsion...We have an instance of ~~if~~ it in Nathaneal...and ...this man...Joab came to ~~the~~ the city...and was going to make an attack on it...and ..This ~~w~~ wise woman, said, No, ~~this~~ his head shall fall over the wall. It is gerund showing that which is necessary or desired, another very interesting case of ~~it~~ it is in the case where ...killed all of ~~this~~ grandchildren, and when she had heard that her son had been killed.
