the certainty of the fulfillment.x of his premise. coming. His words will accomplihs the accomplish the purpose. he sent for. His wonderful gospel call will not x fall on empty ears.-It As an evidence of it, the ...is going to be fulfilled in a way that not human being could have thought about.

In a wya way that none of them, could ... they will go forth with rejoicing.

T j r h- t ey will be lead in peace ....well, there will be no need of fighting and wonderfing whether they are going to make it Again , an illustration of what we had at the beginning of Micah. So that, they will be lead forth with peace, and then what , literally , of course, we say.....is more like this is ...and after all, you- The wilderness is not...it doesn't mean wilderness as a place that is barren, but wilderness in the sense that is which is uncultivated

--it is not the part...all the trees growing throughout the wild-counry.- The trees of the wilderness- wilderness, and this word _____ is used ojly- only three times, but it always used to mean to clap the hands, and Mr. Lee , nxt. Now, of course is-it it is a difficult thing when a book is written in one area, as well in another area... difficult ... plants, animals, jewels... things like that you do not refer to something like that... you get into a different area.

And then you find that the word... you know that it is some kind of a tree, but sometimes it is difficult to prove exactly what it is. Certainly the content is clear here. inste--- that instead of unpleasant, sharp, disagreeable ... they will be pleasant. And of course, we are reminded... I do not see how we can be reminded of the statements... do you know what the Lord says there? in Genesis 3:? Let us look at Genesis 3:... Here we have in Genesis 3:18 thorns and thistles/different words that this word...-this-word-is-translated-here./. The interesting thing is that they are the same word/. in Hebrew. The id= itself is that they are disagreeable things and these disagreeable things are ...
