

interpret Isa. 53 is to ~~say that~~ see how exactly it fits with Christ, and of course that is what Peter taught, ~~Peter said~~ - In I Peter 1:10-12 Peter said of which salvation the prophets have inquired and searched diligently who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you. Peter said that the ~~Old- old-~~ Old Testament~~x~~ prophets predicted Christ, and that they predicted the salvation which should come and that is maintained by Paul, and by Peter and Jesus said, Abraham saw my day and was glad. This is the ~~claim of the~~ claim of the New Testament about the Old Testament. And then for Peter, to continue in ~~verse~~ verse 11, searching what or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did ~~signify~~ signify, when he testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory ~~of~~ that should follow. So it is definitely ~~taught~~ taught here by Peter that the Old Testament~~x~~ prophets knew that they ~~were~~ were predicting the coming of one whom God promised; the one who would deal with the sin question, and bring marvelous salvation, through ~~the~~ - they did not fully understand all the _____. They understood some things, but beyond that they pondered over what God's ~~revelation~~ had given, they tried to figure, when is this going to be. They were uncertain ~~as to what, and~~ and so the Old Testament is either a mass dealing with particular problems ~~that individuals~~ of individual times concerning which times we know very little except what we can gather from ~~the~~ - the ^{poems} or else it is that either in Paul's age God's ^{revealing} ~~dealing~~ through these prophets, dealing with their own times but also preparing for the coming of Christ, and preparing in such a way that they would understand much that ~~would~~ they do not understand, they would ~~be~~ be preparing for ^{nevertheless} ~~nonetheless~~, and they ^{would} study it themselves, and tried to ~~prepare~~ - compare ~~it~~ with the other prophets
