Show if you can predict the future. And now we again show that the Lord's word is going out to distant lands, not just for Israel. Of course, in chapter 42, Now we find that it is also for Israel. We find that it is past. The Lord has made my name memorable, from way back and he has other things. What else the What other things? Mr. Lee, verse 2? That of course fits with/words of the my mouth like a sharp sword. servant. He has made ~~other things. --- Mr. Lee~~ In other words, the servant is the messenger. He has a message to give. This is going to reach many peoples in distant lands. This ... His mouth is going to be like a sharp sword, something that can divide through the errors, something that can pierce through with dividing asunder the soul and spirit, something that can carry the important messages and can prove its utility. The idols are really going to ... He is made to be ... the Lord made the servant one who is able to bring truth to the people. Mr. Lee. (Q)

Yes, now there is a very interesting thing. When I was teaching at Westminster, my last year there, I talked with ... Dr. Stonehouse, the New Testament professor, Dr. Stonehouse made a statement when he was giving a course in Revelations, he said, What is this that is connected:///? It is the prophets of the Old Testament where do ~~hey~~ they take Revelations 19? There is no connection. And the students quoted to him, and it was then that I noticed that ... this should probably be brought out in this connection. What I noticed then is ~~Isaiah 11~~ where he says that Isaiah 11 where it says that With the breath of His mouth, he will smite the nations. An And then in the second Thessalonians Paul says, then will be revealed that wicked one whom the Lord will destroy with the breath of his mouth. It is very clear that here he is referring back to Isaiah. Isaiah says, there is plenty great one. ~~Isaiah~~, plenty.. the great one who is going to establish peace and the lions will lie down with lambs, and wolves and lambs will play together... he is going to come, and the breath of his mouth will/<sup>he</sup> smite the nations. Paul says, the wicked one whom ~~hey~~ will smite is yet to be revealed. And <sup>then</sup> that Revelations says that it comes and out of the nation... and that is ... that seems to me to be the highlights of the
