The copies of the Samaritan Pentateuch preserved by a little group of Samaria that lives in the Old Samaritan . . . They have kept up the Samaritan Religion all through the centuries, and there were maybe five hundred or five-... six hundred of them. who had been ... enough but they have explained ... ~~there were a~~ I think there have been ... they have explained perhaps various manuscripts that have ... but then when people looked at them ... they said, Oh, my, look at this, what a bright .../ That is four hundred years old. Oh, excuse me, they have explained various manuscripts that ... but when the people looked at it... they said, Oh, my, look at the starts... that is not more than four hundred years old. Oh, excuse me. This is wrong ... here go and get it and bring me that old ... bring that one to me. That was written about 1000 years ago. That is not what counts. They have the Hebrew and they have Aramaic translations. If there is any proof that there is any ... it may be ... but they have ... They have the Hebrew and they have the Aramaic ... Then they have the book of Joshua. But the Pentateuch is very ... where it would put blessings on .Then had the book of Joshua. But the Pentateuch is very ... where they put the blessings on mount.Gerizim. Ebal... The Samaritan Pentateuch ... they turned around ... so that everybody ... and then I think that there is difference in ... it seems to me that if I recall correctly. But what they have done in a number of manuscripts is that ... it agrees very well... they have Hebrew and Aramaic translation ... We had better bet back to Isaiah 49, or ... there is no reason to think... so that everybody The Pentateuch gives blessings on mount ... Gerizim... the curse so that everybody may ... I think that there is difference Then I think that there is difference ... It seems to me that if I recall correctly, that ~~the~~ there is something that makes .. all over and hundred years younger, when they die. And the ~~Septuagint~~ <sup>Septuagint</sup> make them all 100 years younger, when their first child is born. In some cases like that it is <sup>very</sup> consistent as if each one ...
