

supernaturally ^{to} heal the water, and ~~many~~ a missionary is able to do some work of healing, to do some humanitarian deed, in some way to help people, and it makes ^a tremendous difference ^{in their attitude} toward the gospel. Unfortunately, there are missionaries who ~~make~~ make humanistic work there ⁱⁿ the objective in life and who think all that they are called for is just to help people live a happier life in this world. No matter what can be done to ameliorate human life, as long as there is sin, there is bound ~~be~~ to be ~~some~~ suffering and misery. God has not called us primarily to ~~do~~ this, OUR task is to preach the Word to the people, to get the Bible across ^{to} the people, and lead them to trust in Christ. Yet, it ~~is~~ is very helpful ~~what we can do~~, that we can do these things to the people, and thus ^{help} win people and also win their interest and their approval and persuade them to take other things from ~~them~~ us.

^{The} Communism ^{to} has carried this procedure ^a great length, ^{Fred Schwarty tells of} a union ^{in the} and hospitals where he worked in Australia during the war. This union ^a was very strongly anti-communist, but it had ^a representative who was a strong communist. This representative was always ready to look ~~out~~ for the interest of any individual who had any sort of ^a grievance. He simply ^{spared no pains or} ~~spent~~ more effort in order to advance the cause of ^{the} union for which he was working. Therefore, the union though it was definitely anti-communist, was ready to extend to have him continue in this vital key position. ^{Schwarty} tells about a missionary in Italy, ^{who had a} ~~a~~ rather small part of the work, ^{Protestant} ~~a~~ local mayor ^{gave orders} is reported that the group was to give up ^{its} the place of meeting, and not to meet there any more. They were ^{frantic to know} what to do and where to go. And the local communist, ^{of course,} ~~of course,~~ organization invited this group ^{to} and hold their meetings in their ^{communist} hall. There under ^{S and Semm} the picture of Stalin the group ^{held their} ~~carried on~~ an evangelistic meetings, and the leader of the communist declared that according to the constitution of Italy ~~the~~ the protestant
