

<sup>a</sup> had right to the freedom of religion, and said, how glad he was to be able to make the hall available to them, when the local mayor was unjustly interfered with ...

~~(6d)~~

the communists are not interested in the protestant religions, for they declare themselves to be against all ~~of~~ religions. If they should get control, the protestants would not have liberty to speak. They might not even liberty to breathe. But under ~~under~~ the circumstances where the communists were trying to go forward, and they saw the protestants being ~~up~~ unjustly treated, they were glad to step and win their favor by doing this in order to help them. The Christian missionaries can be of help in many ways, to the people who agree with them or even to the people who even may be ~~their oppos~~ their opponents. We can often win people in this way. We never find this type on the part of Elijah, but Elisha is ~~of~~ constantly doing good deeds and helpful things for the people as he goes about the country. All these are worthy of ~~of~~ further hearing.

Of course, what Elisha did in this way is incomparable <sup>to what</sup> / ~~but~~ Elijah has done <sup>in</sup> / his great campaign that ... the tremendous amount of ... But to follow up Elijah's work, Elisha's work made Elijah's work lasting and permanent. In chapter 6 we find the sons of the prophets establishing a new place to live, and losing the ax and Elisha worked a miracle, ~~but~~ to get back the ax to them. Instance after instance, Elisha does good deeds, and these help him win great hearing for him.

One interesting thing about Elisha's career is the way <sup>that</sup> / it connects ~~with~~ - on with the career of Elijah. Elisha for a long period of time does what Elijah should have done immediately after the contest with the prophets of the - Baal. Elisha shows the inability to carry on this work. God does not rebuke for him