earth are going to be affected by it. It's a tremendous thing to say about the Servant who is promised, that kings are going to shut their mouths at him because they see something that they haven't previously even dreamed of, and their going to consider something that they haven't heard of before. What is the answer to the problem of life? How can a man be cleansed from his sins? What should a man do? Here is the answer, but they would never have dreamed of it as not a human answer. It is an answer of God's revelation. It is not what man would design for salvation but it is God's perfect cure for the evil of the world and it is going to reach clear to poor and to the lowly, many of them, as well as many of the high and the wealthy. Kings shall shut their mouths at Him. And so the next verse asks the question, "Who has believed? Who has given credence? Who has accepted? Who could understand this thing? The sins and the other ? And the word , that's the third word here, Mr.--- would you translate for us the third word of the next verse? You might translate the whole three, the three first words of
