because we think of chastisement as a punishment, and the verse before it ~~has the~~ - has the idea of punishment very definitely, & He was bruised for our iniquities, and here the idea is not of something that is passed, but of something which is future which He has seen. The chastisement of our peace, the people will paraphrase ~~it~~, the chastisement that makes for our peace, but that doesn't quite fit with the idea of ...a punishment. But it is what he underwent ~~that~~ - went that was disagreeable and voluntarily done by him, in order to accomplish a certain purpose. But if we are going to accomplish this purpose, we have to acquire self-discipline, and we ~~have to~~ - have to do that in order to accomplish ... He ~~went~~ underwent that, He voluntarily went to the cross, not for ~~himself~~, but for us, for our well-being. This word Shalom does not simply mean cessation of hostility. It means much more than that, it means all that is good and worthwhile. And that of course ...it means that I hope that things are going well... and in which we participate...this is what He ~~went~~ underwent, so the _____ of our peace was upon Him. The _____ looks forward to what was ~~accomplished~~ accomplished...so the chastisement of our peace...see how you can get the precise idea & when you come to make a precise translation. ~~Getting the~~ - Getting the words in another language is much ~~harder~~ harder than getting the thought, but this _____ of our peace was upon him. And when you find this _____ as it is ~~in~~ in the Old Testament. It is always something that we should desire, something ~~that~~ that we should seek and yet something that is disagreeable. So the _____ of our peace was upon Him, and Mr. Lee can you finish the verse ...with his stripes, or by means of His stripes we are healed. Of course in English, ,, ,in other Mr. & Quek? The idea is ...I have
