

I Common plural perfect...it would be we are healed. And I don't know whether whether ...it would be more apt to be ...we were healed. We are not going to heal anybody else. This ~~w~~ is taken as Niphal perfect. It has been healed or I think that it is often taken just as a noun , healing.

#66a ,

And therefore, if we show favor, we will get it. And thus failing to get the curing that is available. If we say that we have faith , we will get it. God never promises ...He promises healing in response ...and there are people that have died because they have refused to take medicine and certainly
