

does anybody know one way or the other...but here he has been very ...like the stone rolled away...how ~~many~~- much of this did Isa. understand...they didn't know what it meant...

His grave with the wicked and the rich man in His death because He had done ~~no~~ no violence ~~nor~~ nor any deceit in His mouth. Now what on earth does that ~~mean~~ mean. Did they make His grave with the wicked because He had ~~done~~ done no violence. Because there was no deceit in His mouth. Or ...upon...it can be ~~because~~ because, it can be although. Did they make His grave with the ~~wicked~~ wicked...although ~~He~~ He had done no violence. Well, that would fit the first part, but it wouldn't fit the rich man's ~~tomb~~ tomb. If they make it because ...it doesn't fit the first part and if you make it although it doesn't fit the second ~~part~~ part, and it doesn't fit the second part particularly well anyway. There was a ~~lot~~ lot more reason than that. Here was somebody that was crucified by the Romans ~~who~~ who was innocent, there were many innocent people. They deserved eternal punishment, but words were and there had been ~~no~~ no deceit ~~particularly~~ particularly in their mouth...they were ~~innocent~~ innocent of the particular thing for which they were being killed. This second half in my opinion does not go with the first half at all. The verse should end at the end of the statement...maybe the first half should be turned on to the first half... I wouldn't be at all surprised if the ...I am inclined to think that ~~is~~ is...now, I wouldn't be dogmatic on that. Although they intended to bury Him with these ~~transgressors~~ transgressors, they wouldn't bury Him in a rich man's ~~tomb~~ tomb ~~because~~ because He had done no violence...and ...but Joseph ~~said~~ It seems to me that it is much ~~better~~ better that ...and there was no deceit in His ~~mouth~~ mouth. Yet, it please the Lord. to ...He made ...it was God that caused Him to go into this affliction...He was in such a miscarriage of justice. Yet, in spite of this, ...it seems to me that the last line
