

- 1 The participle often becomes a noun. Running one and runner are both participles. Only usage will tell whether the word has become a noun or is still considered simply as a participle rather than a noun.

Qal active and passive participle

- 2 Isa. 53:1 Who has believed our report? viz. the thing we have heard
Meaning of "report"
- 3 Two mistakes of translators; 1) Starting new chapter here 2) Ignoring Heb. word and going by the English word "report."
- 4 Student's experiences in NY School of Social Studies learning how to make this a perfect world, and the mean swans in the duck's pond. Sin's effects on animal kingdom.
- 5 No cure for world's problems until we can get rid of sin
"What we've heard" is different from anything man would have imagined.
- 6 "Kings shall shut their mouths at him"
Shifts from great kings in distant lands to the people right there who see this occur.
- 7 Something no one will believe unless the Holy Spirit enlightens him on it.
NT use of an OT passage does not exhaust it's meaning.
- 8 Hebrew word mi is always a question, "who"?
Heb. al
- 9 "The arm of the Lord" used as a figure of Christ