Dear Reverend MacRae:

Thank you very much for your kind letter of July 8th enclosing your excellent article on Bible Prophecy. We are setting it up in type exactly as you sent it to us.

I am wondering if you would consider this small change in the 3rd paragraph on page 3: Where you say ". . . , we had actually strengthened the power of an equally brutal aggressor," we might make it read ". . . , we had actually strengthened the power of an even more brutal aggressor." I would appreciate your thoughts on this.

Our heartiest congratulations to you on this excellent article. We will send you a galley as soon as it comes off the press.

I would be delighted to receive your pamphlets on Christianity to Communism and on the subject of the Dead Sea Scrolls.

All of us at Mercury deeply appreciate your fine cooperation.

With warmest regards.

Cordially,

RUSSELL MAGUIRE
Chairman of the Board
