

Following ^{T.} Truth wherever it leads.

T. does not lead; it is —

What is truth —

(Bacon?)
corresponds to reality.

~~certain~~

illustrations:

many things we can be certain:

" " " " we may be mistaken.
" " " " certainty is impossible to us.

Truth does not lead; people lead
most people as led by a thief.
The really original thinker is rare
even he generally gets
a great part of his dogma impetus, method and attitude from other people

Only one person is worthy of our trust. He is the truth.

All human beings may err
My observer may " "
My deductive " " "
Only One never errs.

2 sources of truth —
God —
man (including ourselves)

From God —
the Bible
absolutely certain
but not complete
not entirely self-sufficient (= needs interpretation)
