

put between us and apostates and unbelievers but they are blessings which we have from the understanding of wonderful truths of Scripture and the duty that we have to try to extend these blessings to other Christians.

Let us pray.