

answers to a lot of questions. He went over all the questions asked in examinations for the previous 10 yrs., and he prepared answers to them and then he sold them to some of the other students and which they took and studied the ~~answers~~ answers to these questions. I remember one thing he said. He said, I've gone over the exams in Apostolic History for the last 10 yrs., and we are supposed to read the Book of Acts and be read to take an exam on any part, but in checking it over I have found that always the part given which is usually about 5 verses has started with the beginning of a paragraph. So I recommend that you review carefully the first five verses of every paragraph. So a quite a group of fellows got together and they reviewed the first 5 vs. of every paragraph, and then the questions were given out and for the first time in eleven years it started in the middle of a paragraph! So you cannot always be sure that what has been will be, even if it has been that way year after year.

So Barak says, I don't know whether a storm like that comes at this particular time of year every year or not. It's my impression it does. It's my impression she's right. But suppose this year it does not. What a fool it will make of us all. I'm willing to risk my life, but I'm not willing to risk my reputation. So here she made a prophecy, and I call it an organic prophecy. By that I mean it is a prophecy which tells how God is going to work in order to accomplish his purposes - the thing he is going to do which brings salvation to the people, brings them deliverance. It is going to be this way. That is the organic prophecy. This is the way God is going to bring His deliverance.. Barak says, v.8, If thou wilt go with me then I will go; but if thou wilt not go with me, then I will not go." Barak says, If I lead the people up here alone, and the storm does not come they will say, Barak ruined the nation. Or suppose a storm the storm does come. Deborah has been hearing for many years about Sisera, She knows he is an impetuous young man. She knows he would take the easy way even when it was the careless way and get by with it. He was very effective, but that
