

very very little, and turned down every possible time they could get out of it every invitation to give a message to build ~~up~~ believers, because they didn't feel that was what matters. Well, God has given different gifts to different ~~people~~ people.

On the other hand, I know a man who has the gift of ~~evangelism~~ evangelism, remarkably, a very very excellent man who ~~brought~~ got the vision of the need of Christian scholarship.....(end of record)

And he studied years and got a Ph.D. in German. And he is contributing in scholarship. He is doing something that is worthwhile. But as an evangelist he would accomplish many times as much. That is where his gifts lie. But it is so easy for us to get an idea this work appeals to me, this is what I think is important. ✕ And what Christ wants us to do is to decide what gifts ~~He~~ has He given me, what has He fitted me to do. I must do something in all the lines, I must have an interest in all the lines of Christ's work and do what I can to promote them all. But if Christ has given a gift to someone else and has not given me that gift, maybe I can serve the cause by helping this other person and doing what I can to help them out. Rather than by trying to make myself be something in that particular line. He may have called me to a different line. This, we are speaking ~~of~~ of the invisible church. It is a matter of the individuals relation to other Christians. The individuals' ~~relation~~ relation to the church of Christ, but Christ wants us to think seriously on it. And I think that perhaps that is the very reason why He does not write on our forehead, this man is an evangelist, this man is a ~~pastor~~ pastor, this man is a teacher. He does not do that, because He wants us to learn to follow Him so closely that He can lead us with His eye. So closely that we can study the abilities and study the needs and see what the situations are and see when we can accomplish the most for Him. Not what we feel like doing, but what we are fitted for. ~~What~~ What He really wants us to do.

I do not think that any more that He writes on the forehead, the ~~kind~~ kind of work ~~that~~ that He wants one to do, I think it is very rare that He writes in
